

This image displays a collection of 12 creative problem-solving templates, organized into four rows of three. Each template is designed to facilitate different stages of the creative process, from initial brainstorming to final collaboration and implementation. The templates are visually appealing, using a mix of colors, icons, and structured layouts to guide the user through various exercises and exercises. The first row includes a 'Brainstorm & Idea Prioritization' template with a funnel diagram, a 'Before you collaborate' template with a checklist, and a 'Group Ideas' template with a list of prompts. The second row features a 'Define your problem statement' template with a flowchart, a 'Prioritize' template with a matrix, and a 'After you collaborate' template with a checklist. The third row contains a 'Developing an AI model for classification of Disaster' template with a flowchart, a 'Developing an app for detection' template with a flowchart, and a 'Developing an insurance policies of plans' template with a flowchart. The fourth row shows a 'Developing an insurance policies of plans' template with a flowchart, a 'Developing an insurance policies of plans' template with a flowchart, and a 'Developing an insurance policies of plans' template with a flowchart. Each template is designed to be used as a guide, with sections for notes, questions, and answers. The templates are presented in a clean, modern style with a white background and a grid layout. The text is clear and easy to read, and the icons are simple and intuitive. The overall design is professional and user-friendly, making it suitable for a wide range of users and applications.